Madam / Dear Sir,

This is for your kind information that the provisional registration data for the students admitted in your colleges in the AY 2025-26 as received through the portal concerned has been forwarded to the examination office of the University so that it can arrange to hold first semester examination for those students.

However, preparation and issue of original registration certificates are subjected to proper verification of all documents / credentials uploaded as per the extant admission norms. If any discrepancy is found during the verification process, registration for such students will be cancelled immediately as per the norms and practice of the University. MAKAUT, WB shall not be liable by any means for such action and the entire responsibility shall lie only on the college concerned.

Your kind cooperation is solicited.

Regards,
